

minister to anoint our weak and weary members and thereby restores us to the companionship of the living, or obtains for us admission to the Society of the Blessed.

We are cleansed from sin original
In Baptism's holy waters;
We are chosen heirs of heaven, and made
God's happy sons and daughters.

We are rendered perfect Christians when
We are signed in Confirmation,
And God the Holy Ghost gives strength
To conquer all temptation.

Christ present in the Eucharist
To worship we are bidden;
Beneath the forms of bread and wine
The Lord is truly hidden.

All sins that after Baptism
A man may have committed,
If he is sorry from his heart
By Penance are remitted.

The Last Anointing heals the flesh,
New life and strength imparting;
Or else insures a happy death
To souls from earth departing.

In Holy Orders Priests receive
Their heavenly commission,
With grace to worthily fulfill
The duties of their mission.

In Matrimony, Christians are
As man and wife united,
Receiving grace from God to keep
The faith which they have plighted.

REV. STEPHEN KELLY, O. S. B.